Appendix

Identification and Verification

Details of verification: Please confirm what documentation you have seen to confirm the identification of the applicant(s). Please note that a driving license may be used as evidence for address OR identity, but not both. Copy documents certified by the customer facing intermediary as true copies of the originals are acceptable.

The intermediary must be either directly authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA), or a appointed representative of an authorised firm. It must be possible to identify the person certifying the copy. Where a document bears a photograph, the certification should include a statement that it bears a good likeness to the applicant. Each document must be signed and dated.

A single document in joint names e.g. a joint bank statement, may not be used as proof of ID/Residency for both applicants in joint applications. Separate documents are required for each party to the mortgage.
